

Ambassador at BRESS

Are you looking for a flexible and challenging role where you can utilize your communication skills? BRESS, the student gym of Breda, is seeking enthusiastic ambassadors to join our team on a call-in basis.

Job Description:

As an ambassador at BRESS, you will be the face of our sports center. You'll have the opportunity to promote our sports offerings at various locations in Breda through engaging activities. Locations may include schools, events, and other strategic spots where we can reach potential (student) members.

Roles and Responsibilities:

- Actively engage with target groups and provide information about the diverse offerings at BRESS.
- Set up and manage promotional stands at various locations.
- Encourage membership and event sign-ups through fun and sporty activities.
- Represent and convey the core values and benefits of BRESS in a professional and enthusiastic manner.

Requirements:

- Good communication skills in both Dutch and English.
- A professional appearance.
- Flexible availability on a call-in basis.
- Proactive attitude and ability to work independently.
- Affinity with sports is a plus.
- Optional: Photography experience with a professional camera to capture imagery at events when necessary.

What We Offer:

- A dynamic work environment at a sports-centric location.
- Flexible working hours based on your availability.
- A challenging role where you can develop your communication skills.
- Access to sports facilities at one of the coolest gyms in the Netherlands.
- Opportunities for growth within the organization.

Are you the proactive and professional candidate we're looking for? Send your cover letter and CV to info@bress.nl with the subject line "Ambassador Application".

To gain more insight into BRESS, also check out our Instagram and Facebook pages.

Note: This vacancy is for an on-call position with varying hours per week depending on the organization's needs.